HEN NIGHT TIPS

Organizing a Hen Party doesn't have to be painful. Sure, you're at the mercy of everyone's schedules and often finding activities that everyone will enjoy can be daunting but when everything is said and done it's you'll be glad you took on the challenge and your bride-to-be will forever be grateful.

That said our CREWMEN have created a simple to follow list of tips. Have a read and when ready, book your CREWMEN. We are here to help. Let's get started.

1 KNOW YOUR HEN

Whatever you do make sure you surprise her with things she would love to do and not with things that will humiliate her. Avoid any embarrassing activities or requests. If it helps create a list with items she would want and NOT want to do. Remember, it's her last night of "freedom" so make sure she has fun!

2 HIRE HELP

Why not enlist the help of our CREWMEN. We'll serve food, drinks and help with games. Best yet we'll do it topless. As hired help we'll also tidy up common areas. It's just one less thing you'll have to worry about. If shopping is her thing, hire our Chaperones to hold the Hen's bags as she shops. It's retail therapy at its finest.

3 GOOD FOOD

They say the way to a Man's heart is through his stomach but ladies love food as much as we do. Start your evening at the Hen's favorite restaurant or opt for a themed Pot Luck (see No. 4 below). At any rate, make sure to provide some treats to soak up the fermented grape juice and bubbly to be consumed throughout the night.

4 ONE THEME TO RULE THEM ALL

A little theme can go a long way. Dress up in costumes, colour co-ordinate your venue, partake in party games. Here are some ideas: Disco Night, Pole Dancing, Hollywood Glamour, Corsets and Tiaras, Naughty and Nice. Bonus points: co-ordinate the menu to fit your theme.

5 PARTING GIFT

A small token of your appreciation, a keepsake, a tangible memory of a fun evening. A small gift for the ladies will forever remind them of how much fun they had. This can be a framed photo, champagne flutes, gift certificate or necklace. Anything is better than nothing.

6 TRANSPORTATION

Make sure you've organized transportation for events that require moving from one venue to another. This may include taxi, limos or party busses. Whatever form remember that proper planning can save you lots of time and money.

7 A LUST FOR LISTS

Lists are your friends - remember this. Make a list of everything; guests, food, gifts, venues, drinks, decorations, and most important, a To-Do list. Making a timeline of events falls in this category and should not be overlooked. By following this simple rule you'll save time and ensure a smooth running event.

8 IN OR OUT

If the Hen Night is to be at home remember to keep it clean. Our CREWMEN will look after this for you. They will clear dishes, glasses and keep all common areas organized and free of clutter.

If heading out to a club then call in advance and get on the guest list. Often large parties get special treatment - avoid lineups and maybe you'll get a free bottle of champagne.

Our CREWMEN are here to help you. They'll take photos throughout out the night. As a rule, less is more so whatever photos you take remember to filter the good from the bad. No one wants to see embarrassing or incriminating photos so use caution.

10 A SOLID GUEST LIST

Be selective when sending invites. The best parties are those that incorporate fun, outgoing, sociable people. Invite ladies that will get along with everyone else and can bring a little fun to your Hen Night. Remember to keep everyone up-to-date. No one wants to wait around because the venue changed last minute.

Communicate, communicate, communicate.

FINALLY: ENJOY!

It's a party so go out, have fun and let CREWMEN & Co. take care of you and your Hen.
